

Gifts of the Spirit

LIFE 2.1 at St. Peter's Church

Chapter 12 of 1 Corinthians tell us that God gives us each spiritual gifts. Everyone has a gift, but they may be different gifts. They are all important to do God's work here on earth! Pick one gift you have, and two more that you would like God to give you. Then, pray that your gift will be strengthened, and that you receive the other gifts. Remember that no one gets all the gifts, and that each of them are important in their own way!

The Gift of the Spirit God has given me is...

The Gifts of the Spirit I pray that God will give me are...

I like to show love

The gift of Affection

I like to share

The gift of Giving or Generosity

I like to help others.

The gift of Service

When there is a job to do, I take charge.

The gift of Leadership

I feel sorry for people who are sad, or sick, or in need.

The gift of Mercy

I like to help others learn how to do things.

The gift of Teaching

I can wait without getting upset.

The gift of Patience

I don't quit until the job is done.

The gift of Hard Work

You can depend on me to do what you ask.

The gift of Dependability

I am kind and willing to be a friend.

The gift of Friendship

I tell the truth.

The gift of Honesty

I can tell people who aren't Christians about Jesus.

The gift of Evangelism

I can ask God to heal people.

The gift of Healing

I trust God to work in our lives.

The gift of Faith.

I understand situations and how God would want things to be done.

The gift of Wisdom

I like to help people feel good about themselves and others.

The gift of Encouragement